

Dear Sirs: I am very concerned about the possible impact of this technology on Current High Frequency Communications. Communications which are essential for the safety of this nations especially during emergencies natural and man made. The FCC has a mandated duty to protect allocated spectrum that is utilized for this purpose. Sincerely, Thomas D. Potts